Dear Mr. and Mrs. Svitek,

Thank you for your generosity. I learned a lot on my course. One of the things I learned was that I can't do everything on my own like I thought I could. I realized then and now that it is ok to ask for help ad to complete tasks as part of a team. Another thing I learned was how to complete all of the canoeing moves and that was very exciting for me because I had always wanted to canoe. That was one of the best parts for me. The last thing I learned was that I could be dependent on just myself. I experienced this during the solo event. I am never alone so it was awesome to do that. Once again, thank you for helping me do something so spectacular as Outward Bound.

Sincerely,
